

YOUNG EXPERTS DAY 2022

YOUNG EXPERTS DAY is an initiative addressed to young, prospective students, scientists and researchers who are starting their professional careers.

We would like to invite the 4th and 5th year students and doctoral students whose interests and research area include the security, international relations, legal, economic and technical issues in the region of Central and Eastern Europe to present papers as part of YED. We will be happy to learn about your research results, fresh insight and innovative views on the issue, especially in the global dimension.

Each paper presented as part of YED will be evaluated for the "Best YED 2022 Presentation" by the Competition jury, composed of members of the academics of the University of Zielona Góra and the editorial office of the "Układ Sił" monthly magazine. The laureate will be presented with an award at the closing ceremony of the THREE SEAS ONE OPPORTUNITY Conference on May 19, 2022.

1. Applications for YED Competition shall be accepted until March 31, 2022 from the 4th and 5th year students and doctoral students whose interests and research area include the security, international relations, legal, economic and technical issues in the region of Central and Eastern Europe.
2. The application form is available at www.3s1o.org. Each speaker is requested to provide all the required contact details and attach a summary of the proposed presentation.
3. Due to the limited number of Conference participants, only selected candidates who have submitted their applications for YED shall be contacted by the organizer by 14 April, 2022.
4. The YED panel will begin on Day 2 of the THREE SEAS ONE OPPORTUNITY Conference, i.e., May 19, 2022, at 10:00.
5. Each YED Participant is required to appear in the Competition Panel.
6. The time limit for the presentation will depend on the number of competition entries.
7. Each YED Participant will be informed by the Organizer about the time limit no later than 14 days before the presentation.
8. During the presentation, the participant may: read out a paper, give a speech, or deliver a lecture based on the prepared presentation.
9. The presentations prepared by YED Participants will be evaluated by YED Jury, composed of the research staff of the University of Zielona Góra and experts from non-university research centers selected by the Organizer.
10. The composition of YED Jury will be announced 14 days prior to the date of YED Competition.
11. YED jury, at a closed session, will select the winner of YED Competition and two honorary distinctions based on the speeches or delivered presentations.
12. The Main Laureate of the Competition will receive a commemorative YED statuette and a special award involving the possibility of publication in one of the trade magazines. Detailed description of the special prize will be provided no later than 14 days before YED Competition.
13. Individuals distinguished by the Jury will receive commemorative diplomas.
14. The announcement of winners and the award ceremony will take place on May 19, 2022 in the second part of the session, after 1.00 p.m.
